

“Powerfully Playful”

Going Out

Date Nights and Dinners Out

I make date nights and dinners out a regular priority in my life. Alone time with my partner is precious. I will dress in a way that makes him smile...wearing his favorite color, showing a little shoulder and tastefully showing off my curves. When I'm with family or the girls, I make a point to dress nicely with a little sass.

Brunches

These are very popular. I love going out to brunch with family, friends, church members, sorority sisters and couples. Usually, I will dress “Blessed & Beautiful” or “Powerfully Playful,” depending on where we're going and who I'm going with.

White Parties

For these events, everyone is required to wear head-to-toe white. A note to merchandisers: it is important to customers that we accurately label each product's particular shade of white: Optic White, Off-White, Cream, etc.

After-Five Events

These can include going out to dinner, listening to jazz music, relaxing at the bar or indulging in a late-night bite to eat. For this kind of fun, I will wear “fun & flirty” looks or even after-five attire (cocktail dresses).

Travel

When I go on vacation, selecting my attire for the week is really important to me. I plan my outfits down to the jewelry, shoes and handbag. The type of clothing I choose depends on the season and the destination.

Cruises

Clothing should be cool and comfortable, some semi-sheer but all very exciting and eye catching. Daytime will be informal. Evening will be a mix depending on the theme of the night. For instance, a Captain's Dinner could be formal.